

The Bible Says Prove All Things (1 Thess. 5:21)

The Almighty told you to. Go ahead. That sounds a little persuasive, but you need a jumpstart to get you going.

Many years ago I started proving that good old traditions and customs of churchanity, and I discovered those not so good! Not at all acceptable; now I understand why we are to prove all things, even that good and acceptable and perfect willow of Almighty (Yahweh), Rom. 12:2. Friend, if it isn't right...it's got to be wrong! The straight and narrow is too straight for this commercialized religion of society! Not many will agree with that remark, but some will. Many will seek to enter into the straight and narrow but won't be able. We must understand that! He that is of truth will have no problem with that plain statement; Messiah said so. I would rather be one of His lost sheep, with the potential to hear the truth, (2 Thess. 2:10, 12).

Oh you blind Pharisee, you hypocrite, that talk and say nothing. You will be known by your fruits. Oh, didn't we sow good seed in His field? But when the fruit appeared the tares appeared also. An enemy hath done this, (Mt. 13:28). Only by the fruit we will know the difference. A great question is being asked...Why do good people do bad things? They don't! A good tree cannot bring forth corrupt fruit, neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit, (Mat. 7:16-20, 12:33). There you have it. Please come to the information center; the household of faith, the body which is the church, (Col. 1:18).
